- C. The Shura shall handle the investments of the Foundation.
- D. IFP will NOT accept donations from foreign sources unless authorized by the General Body to do so at the time of a General Business Meeting. Foreign source is defined as monies originating from outside the United States of America or from foreign government organizations.”

Article VII: IFP Sunday School Board

- A. The Islamic Foundation of Peoria Sunday School (henceforth referred to as IFP Sunday School) will form a School Board to oversee the affairs and running of the school, while ensuring the mission, policies and procedures of the IFP Sunday School are maintained and followed. The School Board will also play a vital role in curriculum development. The School Board will consist of five members as described below:
 - 1. Position A to be held by an IFP Shura member appointed by the President of the Shura. This person will serve as the chair of School Board. The term of this position will be the same as their position on the Shura.
 - 2. Position B to be held by the Principal. This position will always be occupied by the current Principal of IFP Sunday School.
 - 3. Position C to be held by a person who has served, or currently serves, on the IFP Sunday School Administration. This position will have a 3-year term. This person is eligible for one re-election.
 - 4. Positions D and E to be held by parents and/or teachers who have been actively affiliated with the Sunday School. The first person to fill position D will have a term of 2 years. The first person to fill position E will have a term of 1 year. Both positions will have subsequent 3-year terms and are eligible for one re-election.
- B. The School Board’s primary role and function will be defined and limited to the following responsibilities:
 - 1. To ensure the mission of the IFP Sunday School is being adhered to
 - 2. To ensure the Staff Policies and Procedures of the IFP Sunday School are being adhered to

3. To ensure the Parent/Student Handbook of the IFP Sunday School is being adhered to
4. To work with the IFP Sunday School Administration regarding curriculum development
5. To actively participate, recruit and assist the President of the IFP Shura in the selection of the Principal-Elect or Principal position based on the IFP Sunday School Administrative Structure's Succession Plan. The School Board will provide the President with a final selection of names from which he will choose to fill the Principal-Elect or Principal position.
6. Dispute resolution for any IFP Sunday School issues that cannot be resolved by the IFP Sunday School Administration will be deferred to the School Board. Parents have the right to address the School Board if any issues cannot be resolved by the IFP Sunday School Administration.

C. Establishing the Initial IFP Sunday School Board: For the first year of the IFP Sunday School Board, the members of the School Board will be appointed and approved jointly by the IFP Shura President, Shura Sunday School Committee, and the Sunday School Administration. The election procedure for positions C, D, and E (as referenced in Article VII(A) above) will be determined by the School Board during their 1st year of operation.

(This article was enacted per the procedures outline in Article VIII on December 13, 2014)

Article VIII: General Assembly Proposals and Amendments

A. Proposals for Action

1. Proposals for Action must be presented in writing to the President of the Shura and signed as a petition by at least one third (1/3rd) of the current Members in good standing one month prior to any General Business Meeting.
2. The President is then obligated to discuss the Proposal for Action at the first General Business Meeting that occurs following receipt of this petition.
3. A vote on the Proposal for Action will be taken at that time and the results of the vote become binding upon the Shura if the Proposal passes by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of Members present if a quorum exists. If a quorum does not exist then the issue will be presented at the next General Business Meeting and so on until a quorum is achieved. Voting will be conducted in the manner outlined in the By-Laws.
4. Any successful Proposal for Action vote will require the President of the Shura to immediately appoint a committee to carry out the Proposal for Action in the method outlined in the By-Laws.

B. Constitution or By-Laws Amendments

1. Proposed Amendments to the Constitution or By-Laws must be presented in writing to the President of the Shura Council and signed as a petition by at least one third (1/3) of the membership at least one (1) month prior to a General Business Meeting. Alternatively, the Shura may recommend changes to the members during a General Business Meeting. In this case, the Shura must have unanimously decided on such a recommendation. Unanimous will be defined as all seven (7) Shura members.
2. The President shall mail the proposed amendment(s) to all Members by any means of communication at least two weeks before the next General Business Meeting.
3. The President shall call for a General Business Meeting for the purpose of discussing and voting on the Amendment(s).
4. Amendments will be considered passed, binding, and immediately effective, unless otherwise specified, if passed by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of a quorum of members as defined in the By-Laws. Voting is to be conducted in the method outlined in the By-Laws.

Article IX: Miscellaneous

A. Inurement of Income

No part of the net earnings of the Foundation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its Members, the Shura Council members, or other private persons except that the Shura Council shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered.

B. Legislative or Political Activities

No substantial part of the activities of the Foundation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and the Foundation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

C. Operational Limitations

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, the organization is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, religious and scientific purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

D. Dissolution

If one-half (1/2) of the Membership petitions for dissolution of the IFP, then an emergency meeting of the General Assembly shall be called to discuss the issue. One-half the membership is required for a quorum and two-thirds (2/3) of Members present is required for all decision. If this number cannot be convened, then a second meeting, regardless of how many Members are present, can make its decision by a two-third (2/3) vote. In the event it is decided to dissolve the organization, the same Assembly shall choose a group of three (3) persons to liquidate the transactions of the organization. If, after all the debts of the organization are paid and if any assets remain, the General Assembly may either freeze the assets for use by a Peoria organization with similar objectives or distribute the assets among the Islamic Society of North America and/or The Muslim Students Association of the United States, both of which are non-profit, tax exempt organizations with similar objectives as the IFP. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
